Hackathon Rules and Guidelines

1. Problem Statement Rules

➔ Once a problem statement is chosen, it cannot be changed
➔ Teams must continue with the selected problem throughout the hackathon

2. Communication and Technical Support

➔ Technical queries can be reported through the website
➔ Participants should use official communication channels for issue reporting

3. Movement and Permission Rules

➔ Without permission from coordinators, participants are not allowed to leave the lab
➔ Movement is restricted to allocated areas only

4. Venue Discipline

➔ As the hackathon is being conducted in the library, silence must be maintained throughout the event
➔ Professional conduct is expected at all times

5. Participant Conduct

Participants must maintain:
➔ Professionalism and discipline
➔ Mutual respect and inclusivity
➔ Ethical behavior and collaboration

Violation may lead to immediate disqualification and removal from the event.

6. Prohibited Activities

➔ Damaging college infrastructure
➔ Influencing judges or organizers

7. Design and Implementation Expectations

Participants are expected to:

➔ Develop original, functional solutions
➔ Clearly justify design decisions
➔ Demonstrate learning during the hackathon
➔ Maintain clean and readable code
➔ Explain architecture and implementation clearly

8. Tools, Technologies and AI Usage

➔ Any programming language or framework is permitted
➔ AI tools are allowed, but original understanding will be evaluated
➔ Direct output-based coding using AI without understanding may affect scores

9. Safety Rules and Campus Compliance

➔ Water Bottles are allowed. No food or other liquids inside laboratories
➔ Institutional safety norms must be followed
➔ Damage to college or lab property will result in strict disciplinary action

10. Judging and Evaluation Criteria

Evaluation will consider:

➔ Innovation and originality
➔ Technical execution
➔ Problem understanding
➔ Functionality and usability
➔ Learning effort
➔ Presentation and demonstration

Judges' and organizers' decisions are final and binding.

11. General Rules

➔ Organizers are not responsible for personal belongings
➔ Schedule must be followed strictly ➔ Organizing committee reserves the right to modify rules if required
➔ All decisions by organizers are final and binding